HEADING TO SCHOOL FOR THE FIRST TIME

Learn how to prepare yourself and your child for heading off to school

It's time for your child to start Kindergarten and you're worried about how the moment of separation will go. You want your child to be excited and eager to go and have a successful start, but you are realistic about the possibility that separation will be difficult. First, be aware that it is normal for many young children to cry when they have to separate from parents and try a new experience away from the familiar. While there are no guarantees that everything will go smoothly, there are many things you can do together to prepare for these first days of school, no matter what your child's age.

HERE ARE A FEW SUGGESTIONS:

- Arrange for your child to visit with his or her new teacher before the first day. Each school will have an OPEN HOUSE before the first day, please check website for dates and times.
- Do some pretend play with your child about how you will go to school and how you will say goodbye. Imagine waking up, getting dressed, getting in the car or bus, walking to the door, kissing good-bye.
- Agree on a good-bye ritual-how many kisses, hugs, etc.
- Make sure your child and his/her teacher understands how the child will get home.
- Find out about the schedule for the day so you can talk it over with your child.
- If you are sending a lunch or a snack, involve your child in preparing it. Include a special note, picture or poem as a surprise.
- Allow enough time! Make sure you awaken early enough to have a relaxing morning, with time to dress and get to school in plenty of time.
- Please don't hang around after you have said good-bye. If your child sees that you are reluctant to leave, it makes it more difficult for your child.
- BRING TISSUES! This may be harder for you than your child.

TIPS FOR PARENTS

PREPARING FOR KINDERGARTEN

The move from preschool to “real” school is exciting (and often tearful) for both children and parents. There’s a lot you can do to make the transition to Kindergarten enjoyable.

MAKING FRIENDS WITH THE SCHOOL: Point out the school as you drive or walk past, and say, “That’s your school.” Attend Kindergarten orientation together, taking the opportunity to tour the school and meet the principal and teachers.

LEARNING SOCIAL SKILLS: Sharing is a regular part of the day in Kindergarten. Help your child learn to take turns by sharing toys, crayons and games with friends and family members. Waiting is tough for preschoolers, but you can help them get used to it by saying things like, “We’ll go to the park after lunch.” Teach your child to communicate with words, not actions, when upset. Emphasize that screaming, crying, hitting, kicking and other “temper tantrum” behavior is not acceptable.

LISTENING IS IMPORTANT: Looking at the person who’s talking to you is more than good manners when it’s the teacher who’s doing the talking. Work with your child on paying attention and following simple directions: “Please put your pillow on the bed and then put your shoes in your closet.”

LOOSENING THE APRON STRINGS: If your child is not already attending preschool or day care, look for ways for them to spend some time apart from you. Trade off with a friend, or sign your child up in a community or church program for preschoolers.

WHO AM I?: Kindergarteners should know not only their full names, but the first and last names of their parents and caregivers. Memorizing your phone number and address may be a little easier for a preschooler if you set them to a familiar tune, like “Mary Had a Little Lamb.”

ALL BY MYSELF: Your child should know how to zip, snap, tie, button and fasten Velcro. Be sure that your little one can also take care of his or her bathroom needs well before the first day of school.

BEGIN WITH BASICS: Go beyond teaching your child the “ABC” song by working on letter recognition, especially letters that spell out his or her name. It’s also helpful if your child can recognize isolated letters and those not in alphabetical sequence. Talk about the colors and shapes around you – the round clock, the red umbrella. Make simple counting a part of your preschooler’s day by counting aloud as you put each piece of silverware in the drawer, climb stairs or bring in bags of groceries. Help your little one learn important concepts by “acting out” the differences between up and down, in and out, high and low, over and under, small and tall.

ENSURE A HEALTHY START: Make sure your child’s immunizations are up to date. A complete physical before the start of school, including vision and hearing tests, is also a good idea. Start your preschooler on a school day regimen of bedtime and wake-up time several weeks before school starts. At this age, a child should have 10 hours of sleep. Most importantly, understand that your child is unique and will learn at his or her own pace. So don’t become frustrated if your child fails to master simple skills right away. The best thing you can do to prepare your preschooler for Kindergarten is to invest as much time as possible helping him or her learn new skills. The long term results will be worth your efforts.

SCHOOL NUTRITION PROGRAM

In the operation of the child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age or handicap. If you believe you have been discriminated against, you may write to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250. This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

General Program Information: It is our privilege to provide low cost nutritious breakfast and lunch meals to all students and staff of the Barrow County Schools. Nutrition is a very important part of the education process since a hungry child cannot learn.

Barrow County School Nutrition meals adhere to the USDA dietary guidelines and requirements. Menus offered are analyzed to reduce calories from fat, added sugar and added sodium, while ensuring proper amounts of nutrients and total calorie intake for different age groups. Barrow County utilizes 100% whole grains on the menus, as well as, lean proteins, and many offerings of fresh fruits and vegetables. Monthly menus are available on the Barrow County Schools Homepage on the Internet at www.barrow.k12.ga.us for both breakfast and lunch meals. Extra milk may be purchased for .50 cents.

Foods and Beverages Brought Into School Cafeterias During the School Day – USDA regulations prohibit the sale of non-nutritional foods and carbonated beverages during meal times in the cafeteria at all school levels. With this in mind and in order to encourage better nutrition and develop healthy eating habits, parents are not allowed to bring foods to school from outside. Parents are encouraged when foods are brought in for school parties, that they follow the same USDA dietary guidelines as the School Nutrition Program. Of course, lunches sent with students from home to school in the morning in lunch boxes, or bags are allowed.

Meal Accounts: Each cafeteria has a computer program for tracking meals and payments. ALL Barrow County School students are assigned a computer identification (ID) number which serves as their meal account number. ALL students must learn their 5 digit account number to use at the cashier station at the end of the meal line.

Prepayment for school meals enables the meal line to move more quickly. Parents may pay online at www.myschoolbucks.com for all school levels. Prepayment may also be made weekly or monthly in envelopes provided by the school. The student's name and account number must be listed on the envelope in order to credit the proper account. There is a transaction fee for each transaction. Money not used by the end of the school year can be carried over to the next school year even if they will attend a higher level Barrow County School. Parents should call the school nutrition manager's office at the individual school if they have questions about the child's account during the year.

Checks are to be made to (School name or abbreviation) Nutrition Program with the student's name and account number on the check. If your check for student meals is returned for insufficient funds, it may be presented electronically by Envision Payment Solutions and you will be assessed a processing fee applicable by law. Other purchases from the school office or classroom must NOT be included with meal payments.

SCHOOL NUTRITION PROGRAM

Free or Reduced Price Meals: Students automatically qualify for free school meals if they receive food stamps or Temporary Assistance for Needy Families. Families may also qualify for free or reduced price meals based on family income. Families must complete a new application each year to determine eligibility. Family applications rather than individual applications are used. Only one application will be needed per family. ALL household members including all children must be listed. School locations are required for all school age children. Please make certain that your application reaches the school nutrition manager at one of the schools your children attend. Applications will be completed at the time of registration at the Barrow County Professional Development Center or downloaded from our webpage and sent in to this office. Faxed Applications cannot be accepted.
