The Fine Print
Checkout is free as long as you return your library materials on time — two weeks for books, audiobooks, and ebooks, seven days for movies, others may vary.  • Two renewals for two weeks each are available on most books if other patrons are not waiting. • It is your responsibility to confirm due dates in order to avoid overdue fees. • You may not check out materials when fines meet or exceed $10.00. • You MUST present your card to check out. • If your card is lost or stolen, notify the library as soon as possible. • A replacement card may be issued for $2.00. • Parents are responsible for the fees on their minor children’s cards.
Adults and students can find the tools necessary to achieve their educational and professional goals. Build a successful future through online learning centers from college readiness skills, computer skills, professional licensing exams, GED preparation, and more.
